

Summer Tennis and Reading Program (STRP)

Position: Tennis Coordinator

Founded in 1999, Tenacity is a Boston-based organization that offers a free tennis and reading program throughout the city.

Tenacity's Summer Tennis and Reading Program (STRP) is open to any Boston resident between the ages of 6 and 15 years old and generally serves more than 4,000 students per summer. Tenacity operates Monday through Friday at 23 sites in most neighborhoods in Boston in July and August. Most sites have both morning (9am-noon) and afternoon (1pm-4pm) sessions. The tennis component of the program is games based and is designed to develop participants into functioning tennis players while emphasizing fun. Tenacity also offers a Team Tennis League for interested players. The academic piece of the program is designed to keep kids reading over their summer vacation so they maintain important literacy skills.

Tenacity partners with the City of Boston and Parks & Rec Department to provide this free program to Boston residents. This is a seasonal position (30 hours per week) from the last week of June until mid-August. Boston residents are especially encouraged to apply.
